According to [] the principals involved in this murder are: ANTHONY STROLLO, also known as Tony Bender (deceased), THOMAS EBOLI, also known as Tommy Ryan (Acting Boss of VITO GENOVESE "family"). []

[] "COKEY DOM" (DOMINICK ALONGI), "soldier", VITO GENOVESE "family", [] VINCENT "CHIN" GIGANTE, "soldier", VITO GENOVESE "family". []

The motive for the killing was because the JOHNNY EARLE gang had, prior to the murder of EARLE, scored in the Woodside bank robbery and a large unidentified diamond score in which EARLE refused to split up the proceeds among all the members. Several weeks previous to the murder of EARLE, an individual in the meat packing business, who was thought to have the money from the proceeds of above-mentioned two crimes, was abducted from his 14th Street office and taken to a home in River Edge, New Jersey. There he was tortured by his abductors, and when he refused to divulge the whereabouts of EARLE's money, he was slain. During the torture period the owner of the home, who was identified as [] (phonetic), entered his home, and since he did not keep his [redacted] was previously advised by SA [redacted] that he did not have to furnish any information and that in the event he did, it could be used against him in a court of law. He also was advised that he had the right to the advice of an attorney.

[redacted] furnished the following information concerning "La Cosa Nostra";

MIKE CONSOLO is known to be a "soldier" in the BONANNO "family". He did not know him to be a "captain", but added that in the event he has been elevated to "captain", it means that JOE ZICARELLI will be under CONSOLO.

b7D

[redacted] said that CONSOLO may appear to be friendly with ZICARELLI, but actually he dislikes him very much and that this dislike goes back to approximately 1946 when CONSOLO was on the lam from a homicide in New York City. Involved in this particular homicide were [redacted] and ANGELO "Little Moe" PRESENZANO. He believed that the victim was killed in the vicinity of Cherry or Market Street, but at this time does not recall the name or the circumstances.

According to [redacted] and PRESENZANO have the reputation of having killed many people in former years. For a number of years, they operated bars on the lower east side of New York City and supposedly some of the killings even took place in the backroom of the bars.

[redacted] described PRESENZANO as an animal and added that he is very vicious. Today he is still capable of fulfilling contracts, however, he pointed out [redacted] is no longer used for contract work.

NY File 92-1450

Informant stated that he has received information regarding a growing animosity between THOMAS EBOLI, "acting underboss" of the GENOVESE "family" of LCN and VINCENT "The Chin" GIGANTE. Informant stated that GIGANTE is a very close friend of VITO GENOVESE and, in fact, was a co-defendant along with GENOVESE in the narcotics conspiracy trial which resulted in the conviction of GENOVESE, GIGANTE and other defendants.

According to the informant, GIGANTE, after his release from the United States Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, in October, 1965, was allegedly promised by VITO GENOVESE that EBOLI would furnish him with a lucrative gambling and shylock operation in the Greenwich Village area of New York. The informant stated that EBOLI originally set GIGANTE up to operate out of the Vicarl Social Club at 207 Sullivan Street, and that GIGANTE subsequently quarreled with EBOLI, stating that he, GIGANTE, was not getting as much of the "action" as previously promised. EBOLI accused GIGANTE of mismanagement in failure to turn over a proportionate amount of the gambling proceeds which accrued to him at this location. Informant stated that the result was that GIGANTE left the Lower West Side and moved to a location on Mulberry Street on the Lower East Side of New York City.

Informant stated that GIGANTE is also disturbed because [redacted]
[redacted] has sided with THOMAS EBOLI in this dispute and is prospering much more. [redacted] Informant stated that GIGANTE has also asked PETER DE FEO to assist him financially and PETER DE FEO has lent him money at a low rate of interest which GIGANTE is putting out on the street at shylock interest rates. Informant stated that he believed that this hostility between GIGANTE and EBOLI would grow stronger and could possibly cause a split between the Lower East Side and Lower West Side GENOVESE "family" members.

Social Club located at 207 Sullivan Street, NYC. Informant stated that many of the individuals who meet at this location in the morning hours are unknown to him, but this location is apparently a collection and payoff center for a wide area of numbers and shylocking operations controlled by EBOLI. Informant stated that the activity at this location has increased considerably since VINCENT "The Chin" GIGANTE was removed from the Vicarl location. The removal of GIGANTE, as previously reported, was apparently due to the reason that he spent too much money, disagreed with EBOLI, and was not producing enough "take" from his location.

LCN

On 8/19/66, informant furnished the following information, which because of its nature and source should be handled very discreetly so as not to compromise his identity:

Informant stated that VINNY MAURO, who was formerly the owner of the Golden Key Restaurant, an after hours club in NYC, and FRANK CARUSO, MAURO's partner, were both involved in a narcotics case which resulted in their apprehension and present confinement in Atlanta Penitentiary. Informant said both MAURO and CARUSO are "button guys" in the VITO GENOVESE "family".

Informant said that many years ago VITO GENOVESE had insisted that LCN members refrain from the traffic of narcotics and has apparently felt very strongly about any "soldiers" becoming involved in the same.

Informant said that when MAURO and CARUSO were sent to Atlanta Penitentiary, both lived in fear of their lives since GENOVESE became enraged when he learned they were convicted for narcotics and that both were in his "family".

Informant stated approximately one year ago he had learned that an individual who was discharged from Atlanta Penitentiary had received a request from MAURO to have $200 given to a former inmate of Atlanta who had befriended him there. This individual was instructed to contact GIGANTE, whom informant knew to be a "button guy" in the GENOVESE "family" under THOMAS EBOLI aka Tommy Ryan, but he was unable to locate GIGANTE. However, since GIGANTE was known to be a close associate of a "button guy" in the GENOVESE "family" known only as [redacted] and that [redacted] was known to hang out at the Bon Appetite Restaurant, 84th Street and 1st Avenue, NYC, this individual then sought out [redacted] there. According to informant, this message with the request that [redacted] give MAURO's friend $200 was relayed to him.

Informant said after approximately one or two months another message was made by MAURO from Atlanta indicating that this person had never received this money. Informant said he learned that this individual again contacted [redacted] at the Bon Appetite Restaurant, at which time [redacted] allegedly advised this person "Forget Mauro -- Don't get mixed up with him -- Mauro is no more". Informant said that based on this he felt confident that MAURO would be killed by GENOVESE.

Target also mentioned the prohibition by the LCN against its "members" dealing in narcotics and prostitution. He was asked if this were true, why the most important man in New York was sentenced on a narcotics charge. The target answered that the narcotics conspiracy case against GENOVESE had already been made by the Government at the time of this ban.

The target mentioned that transfers are possible between LCN "families". He said a transfer is usually made once a "member" resides in a new area within the territory of another "family" for a six month period. He said a "boss" will attempt to keep a "good man" in his "family" even if the "member" resides within the territory of another "family". Target said this has been the case of [redacted] inasmuch as, [redacted] is considered a "good man" and, therefore, has not transferred to the Los Angeles "family".

The target said that if a "member" desires a transfer to another "family" the new "boss" will communicate with the former "family" and information will be sent, either orally or by letter, to the new "family" setting forth the "member's" qualifications.

The target indicated knowledge of [redacted] in the New York area. In describing these, he utilized nicknames almost exclusively. In future contacts with the target, an effort will be made to discuss these in full detail.

Informant previously furnished information that GIGANTE and TOMMY EBOLI had a falling out.

On 3/4/67, informant advised that TOMMY EBOLI would have GIGANTE killed if it was not for VITO GENOVESE. Informant said that GENOVESE used GIGANTE on a number of "hits" several years ago and this put GIGANTE in solid with GENOVESE. When GENOVESE was sent to prison he arranged with EBOLI to give GIGANTE a bookmaking and numbers operation in the Village. This was done. About a year ago EBOLI learned that GIGANTE was not turning in all the money he should, as a result, GIGANTE was expelled from the Village. GIGANTE set up operation on Mulberry Street under a boss, not known to informant. Informant said that when EBOLI finally learned the extent of GIGANTE's "holding out of money" he decided to have GIGANTE killed. A message was sent to VITO GENOVESE in prison for an OK to "hit" GIGANTE, but VITO decided to spare GIGANTE.

[redacted] advised that TONY BENDER, when he was alive, owned plenty of real estate around Fourth Street, Prince Street, and Thompson Street, in the Greenwich Village area. He estimated that the value of BENDER's real estate would be about four million dollars. He advised that he knows that BENDER's wife, being Jewish, was never taken care of by the hoodlums, following the death of BENDER.

He stated that as BENDER's wife was never taken care of, undoubtedly the hoodlums took over BENDER's real estate holdings in the Village. He believed that BENDER had a corporation which was located in the Village and probably if all the corporation names could be determined, you would find that TOMMY RYAN and VITO GENOVESE now hold most of these properties.

✓ He stated that there is "bad blood" between "The Chin" GIGANTE and TOMMY RYAN, although not on the surface. He stated that "The Chin" and RYAN opened the Vending Machine Business, Tryan Company, together and they were supposed to split the proceeds fifty, fifty; however, RYAN owns this completely now, having aced "The Chin" out. He stated that actually "The Chin" was a bigger hoodlum than RYAN, until the shooting of FRANK COSTELLO.

He stated that actually "The Chin" did shoot COSTELLO even though he was acquitted, and that TOMMY RYAN was also present. TOMMY RYAN actually ran out on "The Chin". "The Chin" was going to complain about RYAN running out on this shoot, but was counseled by LILO GALANTE [redacted] [redacted] not to do so and he never did make a complaint against RYAN.

Concerning FRANK COSTELLO, he stated that COSTELLO was stripped of his power from 1957 until 1962. In 1962, all properties and everything else that was taken away from COSTELLO in 1957, was returned to him. He stated that in 1957, FRANK COSTELLO owned two very large buildings around Wall Street. [redacted] also had a piece of these buildings.

On 11/9/67, informant advised that "Chalutz" (CHARLES GAGLIODOTTO) is a soldier in the VITO GENOVESE "family" who is very highly respected. CHALUTZ, according to the informant, is in his late 60's and is a throwback to the LUCIANO type of Mafioso.

In regard to CHALUTZ, informant recalled that shortly after CHIN GIGANTE's unsuccessful attempt to murder FRANK COSTELLO, CHIN GIGANTE came into a social club and encountered CHALUTZ who denounced GIGANTE in front of a large group of people with obscene remarks. GIGANTE did not, according to the informant, engage in an argument with CHALUTZ out of respect and fear.

Informant further recalled that approximately three or four years ago CHALUTZ ordered the killing of an individual who was in the custody of the NYCPD or Detectives of a District Attorney's Office in NYC. The unknown victim, according to the informant, was visiting his wife in Brooklyn with several Detectives in attendance when he was shot three times in the head with a rifle from approximately a block away.

Informant disclaimed the identity of the actual killer, however, recalled that five bullets had actually been fired by the killer.

Informant further expressed the opinion that the police did not report the killing as having occurred in the presence of Detectives, but as merely a gangland slaying.

CHALUTZ, according to the informant, is a partner with [REDACTED] and is in charge of the action on Mott Street between Prince and Houston.

The informant described "CHIN" GIGANTE as a NYC shylock. The informant recently heard that [redacted] has been working for the bookmaking office and allegedly became indebted to GIGANTE to the extent of about $75,000.00. [redacted] is reportedly paying vigorous on that amount to GIGANTE. Prior to this, [redacted] was dropping "CHIN" GIGANTE's name around in order to leave other bookies and bettors with the impression that he, [redacted] was "connected" to someone big. "CHIN" GIGANTE allegedly heard that [redacted] was doing this, and called [redacted] down about it. He allegedly told [redacted] that if he wanted to use GIGANTE's name, he would have to put GIGANTE on the pay roll.

Union Chief Tells Mafia Men: 'Hands Off'

By Victor Riesel

Old Vito Genovese is a hole in the ground but his troops go muscling on. Just the other day, a burly chap known to the trade as "Chin Chin" Gigante, and to the FBI as No. 5020214, and to this city's police as B-231328, found a prosperous union of hard-working men and decided to make it his fief.

But there are surprises even in the life of ex-boxer, 263-pound Gigante, though his don is "Tommy Ryan" Eboli, Vito's not very apparent heir.

"The Chin," as he is called by the in-boys over in cafe-studded Greenwich Village, was told by the union chief to keep his convict hands off the labor organization, to get out and stay out.

This took courage. Most informed investigators believe that Mr. Gigante is the caporegime of Tommy Eboli, whose quivering heart does not keep him from seeking new income each hour on the hour.

It took courage to tell off the re-capped mob of the late boss of bosses.

But the union leader, Thomas (Tommy) Shortman, had the courage to do what many should be doing, but just don't, every hour on the hour, if the FBI's statistics are correct. Inevitably they are.

Tommy Shortman, half Gigante's size and weight (when wet), doesn't look like a hero, doesn't want to be etched in heroic terms and will probably resent being discussed in such dramatic fashion. For years now, he has been president of the 35-year-old (Building) Service Employees Union (AFL-CIO) Local 32B—probably the nation's second or third largest local.

There were decent men at its birth—and deadly killers too. Sometimes dues were collected in cash and dumped into trunks. As the years went by, some of us hammered at the Mafiosi who were in the union's fancy woodwork. Soon it was cleansed by a tough Irishman (a redundancy in these circumstances), David Sullivan, who fought a battle or two when in the Irish Republican Army—and now on occasion leads a St. Patrick's Day parade.

Soon Mr. Sullivan led Local 32B's international union, the Service Employees, and moved on to Washington, D.C., to build it into a powerful transcontinental union of 400,000 members—some of whom work in West Indies hotels.

Bantam Tommy Shortman stepped into his place here, where Local 32B has jurisdiction over the 600 men over at Rockefeller Center (including 80 special security officers). The local, 43,000 strong, has contracts with at least 7,000 other realty firms who own everything from the glass towers on Park Ave. to the one-man superintendent or janitor walk-ups in Brooklyn.

The union has a healthy cash balance and an inclusive welfare fund covering its thousands of elevator operators, charwomen, janitors and other service people who need full value from every penny paid by the operators. Thousands of these workers are from the city's ghetto areas. They won't make the French Riviera on what they earn but their wages in many sections of this city are the country's highest for their job classification. There also is a big pension fund.

It's a clean union and Mr. Shortman earns a modest salary, and the record shows even more modest "reimbursed expenses." I know "Tommy." But I would not chronicle this without checking with knowledgeable men of the law, for which he'll forgive me, and they all rate him and his union mighty clean.

So it is natural territory for the Mafia. It's their kind of thing. There was not a single Cosa Nostra diamonded finger in its till. This apparently dazzled "The Chin" Gigante. He began moving in. The grapevine came alive.

"It is true," Mr. Shortman told this inquirer, "these muscle men came. We have faced this for years. We've tossed them out and kept them out. We'll stay that way. Once you let them in you're finished."

On 7/15/69, informant furnished additional information re the club located on the west side of Broadway, a few doors north of the Broadway Central — 673 Bway Hotel, and which he had described as a "queer joint" and an apparent after hours club.

He advised he has learned that CHIN GIGANTE has a piece of the ownership of this club and may have control of its management. He said this club is a "fag" hangout and appears to be operating openly after hours.

He described the club as having a canopied entrance with a blacked-out front but he has not observed a name on it.
